- ✓ Students should speak with their guidance counselor BEFORE registering for a virtual school course.
 - Students are permitted to take no more than two virtual school courses during a semester.
 - Coursework can be retaken for remediation if a grade of D or F was earned.
 - Prerequisites may exist for a course. Make certain you have met these requirements. Make certain you are registering for the correct semester.
 - Grades earned through virtual school will be reflected on your Crooms transcript. If you change your mind about taking a course – DROP IT BEFORE THE DEADLINE – or an F will show up on your transcript. Remember, what goes on your transcript, stays on your transcript!
 - Students are responsible for notifying guidance when credit does not appear on the transcript.
 - You are responsible for your own computer, software, and Internet Service Provider when taking virtual courses.
 - Your virtual school teacher will help you set a pace to complete the course in approximately 18 weeks for a semester or 36 weeks for a year long course. Students may work more rapidly by submitting extra assignments. Make certain you are submitting assignments regularly or you may be dropped from the class.
